

Corruption in Government

(Blog 0004 AndrewHadden.com)

God spoke to me saying, “You need to tell the truth of what happened to you, how it happened to you – your father, the man in your house, the military base nearby, the summer in D.C., other times there, your grandmother, the Masons – it all. Tell it all.” I am going to expose corruption and great evil, in government, our government, and I am going to do it as an eyewitness who is going to be believed. It will be believed because of God’s hand on me, letting me pass into the hands of the most evil people on the planet, people in government at all levels, yet God preserving my life to be able to tell the story at this point and expose it all. God has done it all, and he will prevent the evil ones in this world from doing anything to stop it. That is a warning. God has come out of his secret place to punish the evil in the Earth and he will not allow this testimony to be silenced or its spread prevented. He will use judgment and death to do so. Be warned.

I am one of his witnesses. Witness to what? Anything he wants exposed, and anything he wants to say. By his revelation, many great evils will be exposed – and the perpetrators behind them. I am an eyewitness to much evil, as is my wife. No one dare accuse us of being “conspiracy theorists,” not without putting their lives in peril from the swift judgment of a holy God. We are eyewitnesses, and called by God to be such, and we have suffered greatly to become what we are now. I have been traumatized, tortured, abused beyond measure, brainwashed, and even enslaved and chained – by my own government. And now the truth will be known by all.

This government takes children captive and forces them to be mind-controlled assassins and agents for those within our government who form a shadow government. They use the power and resources of the nation to accomplish their own secret goals and eventually hope to put the world under their rule for their own pleasure. And the public will be shocked to realize how close they are to achieving their goals. This government also takes control of fathers and mothers in order to use them to traumatize their own children and establish control over them as well. No evil is too great for them to do, and do to children, and force children to do – to enslave them all the more.

The public has been exposed to countless cover stories, lies, to cover their secrets, their most guarded secrets. But each of these cover stories is peddled as an “exposé.” They “expose” what they cannot cover, but each carefully denies that mind control has ever been accomplished. They are liars and in on the plan, the shadow government, and the benefits promised.

They reap tremendous benefits from the mind control now though. They can do horrible things to people, or get them to go do horrible things for them, and have them never remember it, or not remember it until the true perpetrators are dead and safe from prosecution. They can secretly rape someone countless times and never have the victim realize it. They can traffic their victims to others again and again and the victims may never know it happened. That is what they are hiding with their phony exposés. Read my “Ritual Abuse and Mind Control” blog on AndrewHadden.org. It will give you the background and testimony needed to understand this.

My story starts with my father – a man of God who had the misfortune to unknowingly marry into a family with a matriarch who worked for the government of the United States most of her life, and was also connected to people high in government and in the secret occult networks that form the shadow government – including and especially the Illuminati. Yes, they exist, and have for a long time. One need only read a Bible to know government has attracted or sought out occult practitioners for thousands of years. There were real demonic beings involved and there was real power involved. They had reason to seek them out. The point of the Bible is that God, and his people, submitted to him, have greater power. Joseph in Egypt, and Daniel in the empires of Babylon and Persia are examples of that. Moses is a greater example of that, as is Elijah. I have the mixed heritage of one who has seen both sides at work – and clung to the right side and overcome the wrong one. I have seen the power of God overcome the worst of Satan’s demonic hordes. I stand a victor, over all the power of the enemy – through Christ. And, with all my experience in battle, I am chosen to be a defender and deliverer of God’s people in the end times. The first step in victory is to know the truth.

So let me get to the truth of my story. My father unknowingly married into a family where the parents were involved in the occult, deeply, likely generationally – while having the public persona of good churchgoing, moral folks. My father married his high school sweetheart – by eloping. His parents, ministers, opposed the relationship. They probably had some discernment from God, but he didn’t listen.

Then my father signed up for the U.S. Navy in World War Two. God arranged for him to get very sick and get out on a medical discharge. He was called to ministry and was supposed to go to Bible college. He started ministering and was suddenly drafted to be in the Navy again – unheard of after a medical discharge. And he was made the acting chaplain, with other duties as well, under an “atheist” captain, a captain who arranged horrific persecution for him and told them to work him to death. Multiple attempts to kill him came, but he lived. When the war ended and he was discharged, he showed signs of severe trauma. What God eventually explained to me was that he went through torture on that ship, under that “atheist” captain. It appears the captain was more likely a closet Satanist in the Illuminati, not really an atheist. They split my father’s personality – outside of his conscious awareness, and used the split off identity they created to hypnotically force him to traumatize his own children years later, without ever knowing it. I saw that when a stranger came and lived in our house for a year at his invitation, and controlled him. My oldest sister eventually accused my father, but he had no memory of it. God had to explain to me what had really happened, and help me look mercifully upon my father as a victim of mind control. That is not unusual. We have seen others.

When that stranger lived in our house, I saw him control my father to hypnotically force him, in a robot-like state, to do evil. And that stranger also took me to training my father was controlled to sign me into. That training, at least much of it, took place on a military base near my grade school. Other training probably took place when we stayed with my grandmother outside of Washington, D.C. at intervals. I spent one summer in D.C. in grade school. When we moved to a small town in Kansas, a county seat with a Masonic Lodge around, Masons abused my family with the same skills. Eventually, I remembered my little pre-school aged sister being gang-raped by them, and me being distraught because I couldn’t do anything to stop them – even though I was still a child.

I should mention that my memories of training overlapped with memories of severe sexual abuse as part of the training, in sprawling facilities only a military base could explain. And there were memories of extreme demonstrations of occult powers.

When I finally had a good understanding of what I had been through, God arranged for me to talk to someone saved out of the occult whose family had been very high in the Illuminati. This person immediately identified the ritual behaviors of Druids and immediately pegged it to someone of Irish descent. My maternal grandfather was half Irish and half Scottish. They also pegged my memories of training I was subjected to as being from the MKULTRA project of the Central Intelligence Agency, the CIA. They had been through the training themselves and knew others who had been through it. I did not know that when I told them my story, at God's direction. The CIA tried to create mind-controlled assassins and agents, "Manchurian Candidates" as they are called, based on a novel and now several movies based upon it. They succeeded, but have tried very hard to deny it, for decades.

The CIA and military intelligence also did experiments on children – but they did their utmost to conceal the nature of their programs, never properly describing them in the first place, and then trying to destroy all record of them. What they actually did was illegal, immoral, and utterly unconscionable. But then, people high in the occult (and in our government) have no conscience. They have been destroying every moral impulse all their lives, while living a cover story of moral goodness and religiosity. These people can sacrifice an undocumented baby or a captured homeless person to Satan, and then walk into church all smiles the same weekend. I know. I've met some of them. My wife grew up in their clutches – but escaped by the power of God. God put us together to team up to expose them.

My government, infiltrated and controlled by these occult practitioners, subjected young children to torture and training more brutal than any uniformed member of our military has endured as part of their training – because it would be illegal to subject them to it. We were trained to fight with knives and then forced to fight each other to the death with knives. The training included grade-school-aged children, boys and girls. But the children were first subjected to torture, drug enhanced hypnosis, and training, continually enforced with excruciating torture and terrifying trauma. They sought to make us fear our trainers more than anything else, even painful death, to make us into weaponized human beings, controlled like robots by their controllers. They also subjected them to horrific sexual abuse as a form of trauma and torture.

Vicious, brutal, and deadly hand-to-hand combat was also taught, and enforced with brutality and torture. We were beaten with long rods to force us to defend and fight back. Greater and greater speed was forced. Soon, we could kill with bare hands before anyone could react. They even had a fixture to use to realistically practice breaking necks and gouging out eyes on the first strikes. Grade-school-aged children were turned into assassins and agents of the U.S. government – and its shadow government of occult leaders.

They also used torture to push mental abilities to levels most would think impossible. They tried to turn children into human tape recorders who could remember every conversation they heard, word for word – because they had been forced to listen to tape recordings and tested and tortured for anything they did not remember.

We were forced to overcome fears until we would obey our controllers no matter what we faced. They subjected us to being placed in coffin-like boxes, but with a screened hole at the foot for air, like solitary confinement, but worse. Then they subjected us to having rats, spiders, snakes, or human body parts put in the box with us – before or after we entered. We would be shut in, in the dark, with terrifying things – until we could turn off the terror within and survive and obey.

We were taught to penetrate the defenses of a property in the dark without being seen. And we had to do it in the required time or have a vicious dog named Satan sent after us to terrify us into compliance.

We were trained with rifles and pistols – and had guns pointed at our heads to kill us if we did not do exactly as commanded. And they had no regard for human life. Eventually live targets were used and we would die if we did not do as commanded. Children, forced to murder or die, by their own government – on a military base.

There is evil in our government, corruption, and it must be dealt with. I, and my wife, have reported these crimes to the Attorney General of my state and the Attorney General of the United States, and no one has replied in many months. How high does the corruption go? You tell me.

Now God will avenge. He is the ultimate judge. Deaths will come. You only needed to be told why, and then warned – out of God's sense of justice. Now his justice is unleashed and free to act, God's justice to be satisfied.
