

The Deal with China to Destroy the United States

(Blog 0007 AndrewHadden.com)

I am not, in any way, against the people of China. God chose me to give a vision and word about the people of China calling out for people to pastor them, and God giving my denomination a way to get people in to pastor them – sending laymen who could also teach and disciple people as a pastor would. That method was accepted by my own denomination, and about anybody else getting people into China, for many years. When I was on the corporate comptroller's staff for a large international oil and gas company, I gave a presentation on doing business in China to the corporate comptroller and his leadership team, and was asked, at the time, if I wanted to go to China. I replied positively, right away. I have had other revelations about what is coming for China, and shared them with leaders who are very much for the people of China.

China is not a homogenous society. There are those that rule China, and there are the people who are ruled by them. The rulers of China, communist rulers, have forced upon the people their ideas and programs for many years, and those programs have brought mass death repeatedly, ineptly, or deliberately, through purges, to try to force the people to only believe and say what they are told to believe and say. The one-child policy, and mass forced abortions to enforce it, is one example. The crushing of the demonstrators in Tiananmen Square is another example. Imprisonment and slave labor based on ethnicity or religion are other examples. The testimony of the oppressed to being repeatedly raped and tortured should also be noted.

China is, without question, a totalitarian state. It's experiment with a limited form of capitalism, and supposed economic freedom, should not deceive us. It is still very much a totalitarian, communist state. It is just using its economy as part of its plan for unrestricted warfare against the rest of the world. It has facilitated expertly stealing the designs and knowhow of the West – to facilitate plans of world conquest.

But there is something far deeper and far darker going on. The United States is being betrayed and destroyed by their own leaders, in cooperation with much of its mainstream media. They have sold out America to its enemies, and are seeking to loot and leave America, leaving it to be conquered and ruled by her enemies, enemies with which they are treasonously cooperating.

Why would they do this? Because the good people of America have stood in the way of their goals to divide up and rule the world for their own benefit. America, unquestionably starting as a nation of Christians, resists the evil that people in government want to do. And Christians, real ones, are not easily controlled by groups that have, for centuries, many centuries, sought to use occult, demonic methods to control leaders and the masses. That is why Christians are opposed and persecuted, the world over. Real Christians are openly opposed in politics, and the media, if they run for office, or are considered for a judicial appointment. So the real leaders of America have purposed to destroy America, to facilitate annihilating all of its Christians. We are being set up to be destroyed and it is almost too late to save America.

We have open borders because it facilitates destroying America. We have military and foreign policy weakness because it facilitates destroying America – and dividing up the world between emerging totalitarian empires that are in on the plan. We have record spending and record inflation, because it facilitates destroying America with economic collapse. Who buys much of America's government debt instruments? Deep deficit spending is handing China a choke hold on America. Ask all the top leaders in America if they have already bought a home in Europe. It has been in the news. Don't count on them telling the truth.

We are about to be struck with terrorism on our soil, meant to destroy America as we know it. I have been warning of it for years, because God has been warning of it for years. And expect Christian leaders to be struck first and hardest. Because this is, at its root, a plot to destroy Christians, first and foremost – to bring in the rule of the Antichrist. The Antichrist is, at first, ruling through his puppets who have been bribed with what they can have, once totalitarian rule is established.

Open borders allow the massive infiltration of terrorists to bring down the United States. Middle Eastern terrorists have been coming over our borders at least since the eighties. They have had a long time to plan and prepare. And there are foreign nations behind them, providing all they need to destroy us. And America has given Iran, a nation that finances and controls terrorists all over the world, a massive amount of cash, under Obama, and a path to nuclear missiles under both Obama and Biden. Cash fuels terrorism. Iran's missiles have been tested in a way that only makes sense if they aim to use electromagnetic pulse weapons on them – devices that cripple every electrical and electronic device – and can take down the power grid long enough to starve America. Even vehicles do not run without electronics. We are still vulnerable to that because our congress has refused to make that quickly recoverable, even though a study by experts told them what is necessary. Why? They plan America's demise.

Once the leads are followed to those behind the terrorists that will attack America, we will have World War Three on our hands. A nation deeply in debt by foolish spending designed to allow its political class to loot and leave the country, and with a greatly weakened military, is not prepared for what is coming. We risk that America will be conquered by her enemies, who will make it a priority to slay anyone who does not convert to Islam. This is a plan not just to turn America over to her enemies; it is a plan to annihilate Christians, so those in league with the rising Antichrist can rule the world for their own benefit, with all the common people basically enslaved.

I was first directed to warn of China's bioweapons program, but God wanted me to go deeper and expose the agreement between our leaders and China seeking to destroy America. The plan of China to develop biological weapons has already been warned of in the press. I recommend The Epoch Times to find the truth on this issue, and a lot of other issues deliberately suppressed by the left-stream media, the Illuminati owned or controlled media.

Decades ago, someone came out of a family high in the Illuminati and exposed the Illuminati and their plans. This person had made a genuine conversion to Christianity, as attested to me by their deliverance minister. Another reliable source saved out of the Illuminati gave me proof this person really had been in the Illuminati. I got a lot of information from these sources, trusted information. They said that the Illuminati had made a deal with China years ago when they were first brought out of their isolation, and impoverished backwardness, after Nixon visited the nation. I saw the plans of China inviting the world to come have access to their huge market by placing their manufacturing there, and giving China all they needed to start learning everything they needed to eventually become an economic powerhouse, by their cheap labor – and the ability to steal designs, trades secrets and know-how.

I once worked in an engineering lab for a huge U.S. automobile manufacturer. Essential engineering know-how is not learned in engineering classes in universities. Much of it is learned by trial and error, trying and improving designs, and testing their durability, in the laboratory, and in service by customers – for generations. Giving all that knowledge away, or allowing people the easy opportunity to steal it on an ongoing basis, is not something companies would ever have done – without a plan that compensates them in the end.

The Illuminati basically runs America. Their families could buy their way into their kids all going to Ivy League schools and being placed to eventually lead America's largest and most successful companies. The media they own could make it sound like their schools were the only ones that could properly train top leaders – in business and government.

Many years ago, God began his explanations of what is really going on in the world by saying, "Many have sold their souls for money." That is a good explanation for what has become of America. Satan has bribed his way into control of many who run the country. And it extends down to secret societies that control even local governments all over America. Their secret vows assure that Satan can rule. Those at the top of even societies that seem innocent enough, at the lowest levels, know they have sold their souls and worship Satan under various names.

So, the Illuminati hatched a plan to destroy America. But they are taking their companies and their wealth with them. The rise of China, and its massive military, is by their plan. They moved the manufacturing base of America to China – so they can destroy America and its Christians without consequence – to them. Russia is in on the plan. The Illuminati is there also, and other organizations they could make a deal with. So, there you have the first three "kings" that the Bible prophesies will be the first to fall to the Antichrist. Welcome to the end times. Are you awake yet? My calling was expressed to me, decades ago, as: "You will be my witness. Go and fight the Beast." I screamed in shock – but I have had time to adjust. It is essential that you start adjusting. We are all fighting the Beast, the Antichrist, now. Wake up or perish. That is where we are. Wake up or perish.

We can fight, and America can survive – for now. Scripture will eventually be fulfilled, but in God's time. In the meantime, God will protect his people and preserve them. And that is my real calling. God told me I am to be a defender and deliverer of God's people in the end times. I am walking in that calling, but I must first awaken you. Leave when I leave and you will survive the rule of the Antichrist – by being led to God's protected place. Stay here and God says you must be prepared to live primitively and hide from the Antichrist to survive.

But let's start by preserving America and taking her back from those that are treasonously destroying her. However, God is considering removing Biden and his evil cohorts – by judgment. That would require putting in place an interim government we can trust, until we can hold reliable and fair elections, without the rampant fraud that put Biden and many others in office. Their win by fraud that they think they can repeat from now on gave them the arrogance to take their leftist plans to destroy America forward far more than the promises and policies they ran on. The mainstream media has lied to you in saying there was not widespread fraud. There was enough to tip the election and put the puppets of the Illuminati, and the Antichrist, in control. And those that run some social media platforms are doing their best to censor and silence those that are trying to tell, or spread, the truth. And Illuminati owned or controlled businesses are seeking to threaten and punish them with unemployability or going out of business. Have you not seen it? Wake up. Wake up.
