

Explaining Imminent Judgment on Secret Evil and Plots Against God's People

God wanted this written today because he was planning to carry out a large judgment, by the time many read this, on people that others would not suspect were utterly evil, but they are, or were. Then I thought of the defector from a family high in secret Satanism, the Illuminati, who wrote to expose them, and wanted to make sure that people knew that these people, doing great evil in secret, even to their own children, and the children of others, did not appear evil. Quite the contrary, she made sure you knew they were actually quite personable and likable. She compared that to the media portraying evil people as somehow marked or disfigured by it, so as to obviously appear evil, villainous. She wanted to make sure we knew that was not the case. In what is about to happen, that will be very important to remember – those doing the greatest evil among us tend to appear anything but evil, and seem to be very likable.

I have warned of this judgment coming on my blogs for some time. You might want to look at Blog 0013 on AndrewHadden.com, “Explaining Judgment Happening All Over.” Initially, I did not identify this judgment to the parable of the tares, and Christ’s explanation of it, in Matthew chapter 13, but mentioned those serving Satan in secret being judged, people who have been infiltrating the Church, and government, and more, and doing great evil, even and especially to children. But in Blog 0018 on AndrewHadden.org, titled, “Explaining to Everyone What is Happening and Coming,” I outlined end times events, prophesied in the Bible, soon coming upon us, and first and foremost was the judgment prophesied in the parable of the tares. For you to really understand that this judgment was clearly identified by Christ as coming upon those serving Satan and doing great evil, in secret, but striving to appear very good to the public, you should read that section on the parable of the tares in that blog now. It is convincing, and links in Christ talking of ministers who are wolves in sheep’s clothing, and doing great works in Christ’s name, but practicing “lawlessness” in secret, as Satanists do in worshipping Satan.

I should also make clear that this is not “conspiracy theory.” My wife and I are eyewitnesses, as victims, survivors, of this great evil. That is made clear in Blog 0018 on AndrewHadden.com, “Exposing Great Evil, as Witnesses, Announcing Great Change.” I expose great evil in government, happening to children, on Blog 0004, on that site, “Corruption in Government.” I was among them. I prove from scripture that these kinds of things were going on in biblical times in Blog 0004 on, “Ritual Abuse and Mind Control,” on AndrewHadden.org. My story of paying the price to confront this is in the book, Into the Storm: My Story, available on Amazon.com, and having the first five chapters available for free, as a blog on my dot org site.

But what Christ was preventing, with this fulfillment of the parable of the tares, and its judgment on those doing great evil in secret, mixed in among good people, even in the Church, was not just the evil we expose. Christ told us that they were orchestrating the slaughter of his people, Christians and Christian Jews, all over. He had to stop them before they brought it about. He was planning to do the judgment in two phases, because doing it all at one time would overwhelm people. That would have involved one fourth of the people on the Earth. So this first judgment is still smaller, compared to if all these people had been judged at one time. Christ was being merciful even to the most evil people on the face of the Earth, by judging only part of them, to encourage the others to repent and be spared.

Yes, Christ is that merciful. He is even willing to forgive murderous Satanists raping and torturing even children in the night, if they sincerely repent.

Christ was planning to focus on those in the Biden administration (whom he had me warn), in this first phase, and those closely linked to their evil plans to persecute Christians, clear to the point of imprisonment and death. He was also judging their election fraud, and those who benefited from it. But then, because of these people developing plans to slaughter Christians soon, he had to increase the size and scope of this first phase of the judgment of the tares – in defense of his people. They were also plotting assassinations, more of them.

Let me now focus on the impact on victims of these people not appearing evil. When this judgment, and the second phase, hit, a lot of people are going to realize that they, or their children, are likely victims of the evil that these people do. I explain that these people are quite accomplished at getting people to suppress the memories of the evil that they do. See Blog 0018 on my dot com site, mentioned above, for the most thorough explanation. They use a combination of psychological and occult methods that make most victims suppress the memories of what was done to them, on an ongoing basis, and suppress them for decades, in most cases. They will find that they liked and trusted many of these people, and trusted them with their children. The sense of betrayal with even one such person being exposed can be stunning, and take a considerable period of time to process, and heal from. My wife and I went through that, over and over again. Facing all of it at once, by noticing the deaths all around them, is going to be quite difficult for people. They will need support, including from others around them going through the same things.

Why would God allow this? We learned that he cannot reveal to people what is going on around them, even most ministers, because if they are told, or discern it, these evil people will also know, by occult means, that they have been discerned or exposed. And these people are quite willing to murder to keep their victims silent. And they are well versed at occult methods to harm others, with no visible involvement from them. And few people live their lives attuned to God's voice to where God can simply get them to avoid people well practiced at seeming friendly and good, and reaching out to be "friends" with them. And these people are paid in sex with those they control, including children, and young girls even from a church youth group. And the victims can be used outside their conscious awareness for a lifetime.

So, just like in the parable of the tares, there is a concern about how to deal with evil that infiltrates, and damages, so as not to harm the victims as well. God, in his wisdom, deferred the removal until the time of the harvest, identified to the end times – our times.

My wife and I are eyewitnesses to this great evil, but we are also eyewitnesses to the good and loving heart of God, and that he is capable of walking with each and every one of us through what it takes to heal from these things, and through the days ahead.

There are also other things about to come of which I have warned a long time. God says the earthquake and tsunami that I have warned is coming on Los Angeles, is imminent. God has linked that judgment, and other judgment soon coming on California, to the promotion of perversion, and especially to children. And he has identified the promotion of perversion as a tool being used to work toward the persecution of Christians, even to eventual imprisonment and death, for their scriptural morality.
